

Staff Development

Staff members are encouraged to attend job-related meetings and workshops. Attendance shall have the prior approval of the Library Director. Employees will be considered to be in work status while attending such meetings and shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses. Employees are encouraged to belong to professional organizations.

The Library will pay the basic annual dues for salaried professional staff in either the American Library Association (ALA) or the Illinois Library Association (ILA). The Library may also pay for the continued education of staff members if would advance their careers at the Library. See the Tuition Reimbursement policy for more information.